4. The statement shall cover the items including that the relevant personnel are all equipped with professionalism and independence, rationality and accuracy of the information used in appraisal has been assessed and relevant laws and regulations are complied with, etc.

Chapter 2 Disposition Procedures

Section 1 Establishment of Disposition Procedures

Article 6 Establishment of or amendment to the Disposition Procedures shall be approved by a majority of the entire body of audit committee members and adopted by the board of directors before being submitted to the board of shareholders for approval.

Where the approval from a majority of the entire body of audit committee members as required in the preceding paragraph is not obtained, the Procedures may still be implemented if adopted by more than two thirds of the entire body of directors, and the resolution adopted by the audit committee shall be recorded in the board meeting minutes.

The entire body of audit committee members referred to in the preceding 1st paragraph and the entire body of directors referred to in the preceding 2nd paragraph shall be counted according to the actual number of incumbent persons.

When the Disposition Procedures are submitted to the board of directors for discussion, each independent director's opinions shall be fully taken into account. In case of any objection or qualified opinion from an independent director, it shall be recorded in the board meeting minutes.

Article 7 Where the assets acquired or disposed of by the Bank shall be adopted by the board of directors as required by the Disposition Procedures or other laws, each independent director's opinions shall be fully taken into account when the case is submitted to the board of directors for discussion. In case of any objection or qualified opinion from an independent director, it shall be recorded in the board meeting minutes.

Any transaction involving major assets or derivatives shall be approved by a majority of the entire body of audit committee members, submitted to the board of directors for a resolution and subject to mutatis mutandis application of Paragraph 2 and Paragraph 3 of Article 6.

Article 8 The total amount of the non-business-use real property and its right-of-use assets or securities acquired by the Bank and its subsidiaries and limits on individual securities shall comply with statutory laws and regulation as well as the regulations enacted by the competent authorities.

Article 9 For the acquisition and disposal of assets acquired by its subsidiaries, the Bank's control procedures shall include the following:

1. Push its subsidiaries to set up and execute their own asset acquisition or disposal disposition procedures.
2. Push its subsidiaries to self-inspect if the established asset acquisition or disposal disposition procedures meets stipulated regulations and if the transactions regarding asset acquisition or disposal are processed in accordance with the established disposition procedures.
3. Matters regarding the response given by the internal auditor to subsidiary's preceding self-inspection reports.
4. Process announcement and declaration related matters on behalf of the subsidiary which is not a domestic public company. With regard to the requirement of the subsidiary referred to in the preceding subparagraph 4 for making announcement and declaration when reaching 20% of the paid-in capital or 10% of the total assets as set forth in Paragraph 1 of Article 32, the Bank's paid-in capital or total assets shall prevail.

Article 9-1 The operation procedures for the Bank to acquire or dispose of its assets shall include the authorized credit line, delegation level, execution unit, transaction process, etc., which shall be processed in accordance with statutory laws and regulations, relevant regulations enacted by the competent authorities, the list of authority and responsibility of the Bank's business items and relevant operation rules.

Section 2 Asset Acquisition or Disposal

Article 10 Where the Bank acquires or disposes of real property, equipment or its right-of-use assets and the transaction amount reaches 20% of the Bank's paid-in capital or NT$300 million or more, unless trading with domestic government agencies, engaging in the construction assigned by the land owner, construction assigned for the leased land or acquiring or disposing of business-use equipment or its right-of-use assets, it shall obtain an appraisal report prior to the fact occurrence date from a professional appraiser and comply with the following: ,

1. Where the specified price, specific price or special price is used as the reference for the transaction price due to special circumstances, the transaction shall be first put forth to the board of directors for adoption. The same shall also apply in case of any change in the transaction terms afterwards.

2. Where the transaction amount is NT$1 billion or more, appraisals from two or more than two professional appraisers are required.
3. Where professional appraisal results show any of the following circumstances, unless that all the appraisal results for assets to be acquired are higher than the transaction amount, or all the appraisal results for the assets to be disposed of are lower than the transaction amount, a certified public accountant (CPA) shall be engaged to perform the appraisal in accordance with the Statement of Auditing Standards No. 20 published by the ROC Accounting Research and Development Foundation (hereafter referred to as the ARDF) and render a specific opinion on the discrepancy and the adequacy of the of transaction price:
  - (1) Where the discrepancy between the appraisal result and the transaction amount is 20% of the transaction amount or more.
  - (2) Where the discrepancy between the appraisal result from two or more than professional appraisers is 10% of the transaction amount or more.
4. Professional appraiser's report issuance date and contract establishment date shall be no more than three months apart. However, if the government assessed present value in the same period is applicable and within six months, the original professional appraiser shall issue an opinion statement.

Article 11 For the securities acquired or disposed of by the Bank, the Bank shall, prior to the fact occurrence date, obtain the financial statements of the latest period of the underlying company audited, certified or reviewed by a CPA and use them as the reference for transaction price assessment. Also, if the transaction amount is 20% of the Bank's paid-in capital or more, or NT$300 million or more, a CPA shall be engaged prior to the fact occurrence date to provide an opinion on the rationality of the transaction price. If the CPA needs to use the report of an expert, they shall do so in accordance with the Statement of Auditing Standards No. 20 published by the ARDF. However, it is not limited to the public offer of the securities with active market or the regulations separately prescribed by the competent authorities.

Article 12 Where the transaction amount of the intangible assets or their right-of-use assets or the membership certificate acquired or disposed of by the Bank is 20% of the Bank's paid-in capital or more, or NT$300 million or more, except the transaction with domestic government agencies, the Bank shall engage a CPA prior to the fact occurrence date to render an opinion on the rationality of the transaction price, whereas the CPA shall comply with the Statement of Auditing Standards No. 20 published by the ARDF to provide their opinion.

Article 13 The transaction amount referred to in the preceding three articles shall be calculated in accordance with Paragraph 2 of Article 32, and the "within the previous year" thereof refers to the year preceding the date that the transaction actually occurs. Those that have already acquired the appraisal report from a professional appraiser or a CPA's opinion statement in accordance with the Disposition Procedures can be exempted from the calculation.

Article 14 In case of any of the circumstances below, the Bank shall replace the appraisal report or CPA's opinion statement with the certificate issued by the court:

1. The assets have been acquired or disposed of through the court auction procedure.
2. The assets acquired through the court action procedure due to exercise of the real property mortgage are re-disposed of within three months after the date that the court undertaking or auctioning the real property has finalized the auction and there is no change in the government assessed present value or assessed value in the period between the court auction being finalized and re-disposal.

Section 3 Transactions with Related Parties

Article 15 For the assets that the Bank acquires from or disposes of with a related party, in addition to complying with the requirements of the preceding and this sections for relevant resolution procedures and assessing the rationality of the transaction terms, if the transaction amount reaches 10% of the Bank's total assets or more, the Bank shall also obtain an appraisal report from a professional appraiser or a CPA's opinion statement as required by the preceding section.

The preceding transaction amount shall be calculated in accordance with Article 13.

When judging whether a transaction counterparty is a related party, other than its legal formality, the substantive relationship shall also be considered.

Article 16 When the Bank acquires real property or its right-of-use assets from a related party or disposes of a related party's real property or its right-of-use assets, or when it acquires other assets beyond the real property or its right-of-use assets from a related party or disposes of a related party's aforesaid other assets and the transaction amount is 20% of its paid-in capital or more, 10% of its total assets or more, or NT$300 million or more, except for trading of domestic government bonds or bonds under repurchase, reverse repurchase agreement and subscription or repurchase of money market funds issued by domestic securities investment trust enterprises, the Bank shall not sign any transaction contracts or make any payments until the following information is submitted to the audit committee and board of directors and adopted by them:

1. The purpose, necessity and expected effects of the asset acquisition and disposal.
2. The reason for choosing the related party as a transaction counterparty.
3. The data related to the rationality assessment of the expected transaction terms required by Article 17 and Article 18 for the real property or its right-of-use assets acquired from a related party.
4. The matters regarding related party's original acquisition date and price, transaction counterparties, the relationship between the transaction counterparty and the Bank as well as the Bank's related party, etc.
5. Monthly cash receipt and expenditure forecasts for the year after the month expected to sign the contract, and assessment of transaction necessity and rationality of capital utilization.
6. The appraisal report issued by a professional appraiser or CPA's opinion statement and acquired according to the requirement of the preceding Article.

7. Restriction terms and other important matters associated with this transaction.

The preceding transaction amount shall be calculated in accordance with Paragraph 2 of Article 32, and the "within the previous year" thereof refers to the year preceding the date that the transaction actually occurs. Those that have already been submitted to the audit committee and board of directors and adopted by them can be exempted from the calculation.

Each independent director's opinions shall be fully taken into account when discussing the matters submitted to the board of directors in accordance with above paragraph 1 and the preceding paragraph. In case of any objection or qualified opinion from an independent director, it shall be recorded in the board meeting minutes.

The matters referred to in above paragraph 1 shall be approved by a majority of the entire body of audit committee members, submitted to the board of directors for a resolution and subject to mutatis mutandis application of Paragraph 2 and Paragraph 3 of Article 6.

Article 17 The rationality of the transaction cost of the real property or its right-of-use assets acquired by the Bank from its related parties shall be assessed according to the methods below:

1. Required capital interest and the cost required to be borne by the buyer shall be added to the related party's transaction price. The "required capital interest" cost referred to above shall be calculated according to the average weighted interest rate of the loan borrowed in the year that the Bank purchases the assets; however, the interest rate shall not be higher than the non-financial industry lending rate announced by the Ministry of Finance.

2. If a related party once encumbered the underlying property to a financial institution for a loan, the total value of the underlying property assessed by the financial institution for the loan shall be considered; however, the accumulated value of the loan actually released by the financial institution for the underlying property shall be 70% or more than 70% of the total appraised value and the term of the loan shall have been over one year. Nevertheless, it is not applicable to the circumstance where the financial institution and the transaction counterparty are related parties of each other.

Those that merge, purchase or lease of a same underlining land and house shall assess the transaction cost in accordance with either of the methods listed in the preceding paragraphs for the land and house respectively.

Where the Bank acquires real property or its right-of-use assets from a related party, it shall follow the requirements of the preceding two paragraphs to assess the cost of the real property or its right-of-use assets and engage a CPA to re-review the cost and provide their specific opinion.

In case that any of the following circumstances occurs in the Bank's acquisition of real property or its right-of-use assets from a related party, the acquisition shall be processed in accordance with the preceding Article and the preceding three paragraphs are not applicable:

1. Where the related party acquired the real property or its right-of-use assets through inheritance or bestowal.

2. Where the period between the date that the related party signed the contract to acquire the real property or its right-of-use assets and the time that this transaction was signed is over five years apart.
3. Where the real property was acquired by engaging a related party to construct the real property through a joint construction contract, the construction assigned by the land owner, or the construction assigned for the leased land.
4. Where the real property right-of-use assets for the business use are acquired by the Bank with any of its subsidiaries, or with the subsidiary where the Bank directly or indirectly holds 100% of the subsidiary's issued shares or total capital amount.

Article 18 Where the results of the assessment conducted by the Bank in accordance with Paragraph 1 and Paragraph 2 of the preceding Article all show a price lower than the transaction price, the matter shall be processed in accordance with Article 19. However, it shall be excluded if there is any of following circumstances and the objective evidence as well as concrete rational opinion from a real property professional appraiser and CPA has been submitted:

1. The related party acquiring undeveloped land or leased land for construction shall provide the evidence to prove compliance with any of the following terms: :
  - (1) The undeveloped land is assessed in accordance with the method set forth in the preceding Article and the total value of the house calculated by adding the rational construction profit to the related party's construction cost exceeds the actual transaction price. The rational construction profit shall refer to the lower of the average gross profit margin of the related party's construction division over the past three years or the construction industry's gross profit margin announced by the Ministry of Finance in the latest period.

(2) Other transactions of non-related parties made for other floors of the same underlying real estate or in the neighboring regions within the previous year, in which the area size is close and the transaction terms are consistent in terms of the price differentiation assessed according to real property trading or leasing practices for the similar rational floor or region.

2. The Bank provides the evidence to prove that the transaction terms of its purchase of real property or lease of the real property's right-of-use assets from its related party are similar to the transactions of its non-related parties made in the neighboring regions with approximate area sizes within the previous year.

The transactions made in the neighboring regions referred to in the preceding paragraph shall be based on the principle where the real property is located within 500 meters from the same street or neighboring streets of the underlying transaction property or the announced present value is close. The approximate area sizes referred to above shall be based on the principle where the area size of the transaction of a non-related party is not lower than 50% of the transaction underlying property's area. The "within the previous year" referred to above shall be the year preceding the date that the acquisition of the real property or its right-of-use assets actually occurs

Article 19 Where the Bank acquires real property or its right-of-use assets from a related party and, compared with results of the assessment required by the preceding two Articles, the assessed price is lower than the transaction price is lower, the following steps shall be taken:

1. For the difference between the transaction price of the real property or its right-of-use assets and the assessed cost, a special surplus reserve shall be set aside in accordance with Paragraph 1 of Article 41 of the Securities and Exchange Act, and the reserve shall not be distributed or used as the stock dividend from capital increase. Where an investor adopting the equity method for their investment is a public company, it shall follow the pro-rata entitlement to set aside a special surplus reserve from the appropriated amount in accordance with Paragraph 1 of Article 41 of the Securities and Exchange Act.
2. Independent directors of the audit committee shall comply with Article 218 of the Company Act.
3. The handling status of the preceding two subparagraphs shall be reported to the board of shareholders and the transaction detailed content shall be disclosed in the annual report and prospectus.

Where a special surplus reserve is set aside in accordance with the preceding paragraph, the Bank shall not use the special surplus reserve until the loss on market value for the assets purchased or leased with a high price has been recognized, the assets have been disposed of, the lease has been terminated, proper compensation has been made, the assets have been restituted, or there is evidence confirming no irrationality and the use of the reserve has been approved by the competent authority.

In the case that the Bank acquires real property or its right-of-use assets from its related party, if there is any other evidence showing a non-arm's length transaction, the preceding two paragraphs shall be complied with.

Section 4 Engaging in Trading of Derivatives

Article 20 The Bank shall separately set up disposition procedures in accordance with the provisions set forth in this section for its trading of derivatives and incorporate the items below in the procedures:

1. Trading principles and guidelines: They shall include the types of derivatives trading to be engaged in, operating or hedging strategies, segregation of duties, essentials of performance evaluation, total contract amount for the derivatives allowed to be traded, and upper-limit amount of the loss on either total trading or individual contracts.
2. Risk management measures.
3. Internal audit system.
4. Regular evaluation method and handling of irregular circumstances.

Article 21 The Bank shall adopt the risk management measures below when engaging in transactions of derivatives:

1. The scope of risk management shall cover credit, market prices, liquidity, cash flows, operational and legal risks, etc.
2. The personnel engaging in the trading of derivatives shall not concurrently serve as the confirmation and settlement personnel.

3. Risk measurement, monitoring and control personnel and the preceding personnel shall not be in a same division, and they shall report to the board of directors or the high-rank management personnel not responsible for determination of transactions or positions.
4. The position held for transactions of derivatives shall be evaluated at least once a week. However, hedge transactions required by business shall be evaluated at least twice a month. The evaluation report shall be sent to the high-rank management personnel authorized by the board of directors.
5. Other important risk management measures.

Article 22 Where the Bank engages in trading of derivatives, its board of directors shall follow the principles below to literally supervise and manage the transactions:

1. Designate high-rank management personnel to keep an eye out for supervising and controlling derivatives trading risk at any time.
2. Periodically evaluate whether derivatives trading performance is consistent with established operating strategy, and whether the undertaking risk is within the Bank's tolerance limit.

The high-rank management personnel authorized by the board of directors shall following the principles below to manage transactions of derivatives:

1. Periodically evaluate whether the risk management measures adopted currently are appropriate and literally follow this Disposition Procedures and the ones set up by the Bank to process the trading of derivatives.

2. When any irregularity is found in the course of a transaction and gain/ loss supervision, required coping measures shall be taken and the board of directors shall be promptly reported, while independent director(s) shall be present at the board meeting and express their opinions.

Where the Bank authorizes its personnel to handle derivatives trading in accordance with its disposition procedures for engaging in derivatives trading, the handling status shall be reported to the nearest next board meeting afterwards.

Article 23 For engaging in derivatives trading, the Bank shall establish its memorandum book, in which the details regarding types and amounts of its transactions of derivatives, board meeting bill adoption dates and the items to be prudently evaluated in accordance with Subparagraph 4 of Article 21, Subparagraph 2 of Paragraph 1 and Subparagraph 1 of Paragraph 2 of the preceding Article shall be recorded in the memorandum book for future reference.

The Bank's internal audit personnel shall periodically come to understand the adequacy of the internal control of derivatives trading, and the compliance with the disposition procedures for engaging in derivatives trading audited by the transaction audit division shall be included in the monthly audit items of the annual audit plan to come up with an audit report. In case of any material violation, the audit committee shall be notified in writing. ◦

Section 5 Corporate Merger, Split, Acquisition and Transfer of ## Shares

Article 24 When processing merger, split, acquisition or transfer of shares, the Bank shall engage its CPA, attorney or securities underwriter to provide opinions on the rationality of the share swap ratio, acquisition price or distribution of cash or other property to shareholders prior to holding the board meeting for resolution. The opinions shall be submitted to the board of directors for discussion and adoption. Nevertheless, the opinions on rationality issued by the preceding experts can be exempted under the circumstance where the Bank merges its subsidiaries, of which it directly or indirectly holds 100% of their issued shares or total capital amount, or merges with its subsidiaries, of which it directly or indirectly holds 100% of their issued shares or total capital amount Article 25 In case of participation in merger, split or acquisition, the Bank shall incorporate the major contents of the merger, split or acquisition and relevant items into an open report to shareholders which shall be produced prior to the shareholders' meeting, and deliver the details together with the expert opinions referred to in the preceding Article and meeting notice for the upcoming shareholders' meeting to shareholders as the reference for whether they agree to the merger, split or acquisition case. However, it is not limited to the circumstance where the shareholders' meeting for resolution of merger, split or acquisition can be exempted as prescribed by other laws.

Where the shareholders' meeting of any party of a company participating in merger, split or acquisition fails to be convened, the resolution in the shareholder's meeting is not able to be adopted or the proposal is vetoed by the shareholders' meeting due to deficiency in the number of attending shareholders or required votes or other legal restrictions, the company participating in merger, split or acquisition shall immediately externally explain the reason for what has happened, the follow-up handling operation and the date expected to hold the shareholders' meeting.

Article 26 Unless otherwise stated by law or a special factor which is required to be reported to and approved by the competent authority in advance, the company participating in merger, split or acquisition shall also convene a board meeting and shareholders' meeting on the same day to resolve merger, split or acquisition related matters.

Unless otherwise stated by law or a special factor which is required to be reported to and approved by the competent authority in advance, the company participating in the transfer of shares shall convene a board meeting on the same day.

The Bank shall compile the following data into an intergraded written record, and retain the record for five year for future reference:

1. Personnel's basic information: Including the occupational title, name, ID certificate No. (or passport number in case of a foreign national) of all the persons participating in the plan of merger, split, acquisition or transfer of shares or executing the plan prior to the information being made public.
2. Dates of important events: Including the dates signing the

3. Important documents and meeting minutes: Including the paper-form documents regarding the plans of merger, split, acquisition or transfer of shares, letters of intent or memorandums, important contracts, minutes of board meetings, etc.

The TSEC or OTC-listed company participating in merger, split, acquisition or transfer of shares shall declare the data required by subparagraph 1 and subparagraph 2 of the preceding paragraph to the competent authority for future reference via the internet information system with the prescribed format within two days as of the date that the resolution is adopted by the board of directors.

Where the company participating in merger, split, acquisition or transfer of shares is neither a TSEC-listed nor an OTC-listed company, the Bank shall sign an agreement with the company by complying with the preceding two paragraphs.

Article 27 All the persons participating in or learning the company's plan for merger, split, acquisition or transfer of shares shall issue a written confidentiality commitment, with which they shall neither divulge the plan content to others nor trade the stock of the company related to the merger, split, acquisition or shares transfer case and other equity-type securities in their own names or under the names of other persons prior to public disclosure of the information.

Article 28 Where the Bank participates in merger, split, acquisition or transfer of share, the share swap ratio or acquisition price shall not discretionarily change except under the circumstances below in which the circumstances allowed for change shall be indicated in the contract of merger, split, acquisition or transfer of shares:

1. Seasoned equity offering, issuance of convertible corporate bonds, scrip issue, issuance of bonds with warrants, preferred shares with warrants, stock warrants or other equity-type securities.
2. The conduct, such as disposal of the Bank's major assets which affects the Bank's financial businesses.
3. Occurrence of grave disasters or important technology reform which affects the Bank's shareholders' equity and prices of securities.
4. Repurchase of treasury stock by law for adjustment by any party of a company participating in merger, split, acquisition or transfer of shares.
5. Increase or decrease in the number of entities or companies participating in merger, split, acquisition or transfer of shares.
6. Other terms for allowing change have been set forth in the contract and it has been made public.

Article 29 Where the Bank participates in merger, split, acquisition or transfer of shares, the contract shall record the rights and interests of its participation in merger, split, acquisition or transfer of shares and state the following matters:

1. Default handling.
2. The principle to handle the equity-type securities or treasury stock issued or repurchased by a company before it was extinguished or divided due to merger.

3. The quantity of the treasury stock which can be repurchased by law by a participating company after the share swap ratio calculation base day and its handling principle.
4. The method to handle increase or decrease in the number of participating entities or companies.
5. Plan's execution schedule and expected completion days.
6. The handling procedures regarding the date slated for a shareholders' meeting which shall be held by law when the plan is not finished after the due time.

Article 30 Where any party of a company participating in merger, split, acquisition or transfer of shares plans to proceed with merger, split, acquisition or transfer of shares with another company after the information is externally disclosed, unless that the number of participating companies decreases, the resolution has been adopted by the shareholders' meeting for authorizing the board of directors to alter its authority, of which the participating company can be exempted from holding a shareholders' meeting again to resolve on the matter, all of the participating companies shall reprocess the procedure or legal action which was completed for the case of original merger, split, acquisition or transfer of shares.

Article 31 In the event that a company participating in merger, split, acquisition or transfer of shares is a non-publicly listed company, the Bank shall sign an agreement with it in accordance with Article 26, Article 27 and the preceding Article.

Chapter 3 Public Disclosure of Information

Article 32 In case of any of the following circumstances occurring to the Bank's asset acquisition or disposal, the Bank shall announce and declare the relevant information with stipulated format on the website specified by the competent authority according to the characteristics of the information within two days after the day that the fact occurs:

1. The Bank acquires real property or its right-of-use assets from a related parties or disposes of a related party's real property or its right-of-use assets, or it acquires other assets beyond the real property or its right-of-use assets from a related party or disposes of a related party's aforesaid other assets, and the transaction amount is 20% of its paid-in capital or more, 10% of its total assets or more, or NT$300 million or more. However, it is not limited to the trading of domestic government bonds or bonds under repurchase or reverse repurchase agreements and subscription or repurchase of money market funds issued by domestic securities investment trust enterprises.
2. Proceed with merger, split, acquisition or transfer of shares.
3. The loss resulting from engaging in transactions of derivatives reaches the upper limit set forth in the disposition procedures for the loss of total or individual contracts.
